Notifications of Ordinary and Extraordinary Meetings shall not be necessary when the whole number of validly issued shares is represented at the respective meeting. When an Extraordinary Meeting must resolve on matters appropriate to an Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, its procedures and resolutions shall be subject, where appropriate, to the quorums applicable to the latter class of meetings.

Article 20: The following are matters for an Ordinary Meeting: 1) Examination of the situation of the Company and of the reports of accounting inspectors and external auditors and the approval or rejection of the annual report, balance sheet, financial statements, and presentations prepared by the managers or liquidators of the Company; 2) The distribution of profits for each year and, especially, the dividend distribution; 3) The election or renewal of the members of the Board of Directors, of liquidators and of management inspectors; and 4) Generally, any matter of general interest that is not reserved for an Extraordinary Meeting. The omission of this obligation shall not affect the validity of the notification, but the Directors, Liquidators, and Managers of the Company at fault shall be responsible for any damage suffered by shareholders, irrespective of the administrative sanctions that the Financial Market Commission may apply. However, those meetings attended by the whole of the issued shares with voting rights may be self-convened and held validly even when the required formalities for notifications have not been complied with. All shareholder meetings must be informed to the Financial Market Commission in the manner, at such times and within such timeframes as determined by law or by the Financial Market Commission. For

For calculating this percentage, the shares held by the shareholder shall be added to those of parties related to the former. Neither may any person represent shareholders who in aggregate hold more than the maximum concentration level permitted in the bylaws.

CHAPTER FIVE

The Directors' Committee and Audit Committee

Article 28: While the Company meets the equity and concentration requirements established in Article 50 bis, or that succeeding or replacing it, of Law No. 18,046, it shall be obliged to appoint an independent director and a Directors' Committee. This Committee shall be governed in its formation, membership, functioning, and powers by the provisions of the Chilean Corporations Law and instructions on this subject issued by the Financial Market Commission.

Article 29: Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding Article and while the Company is an issuer of securities duly registered with the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) or any other American national stock exchange, the formation, membership, functioning, and powers of the Directors' Committee shall also be governed, where not to be contrary to Chilean law, by the obligatory provision for the so-called "Audit Committee" in the Sarbanes Oxley Act (SOX) of the United States of America, the instructions issued by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE), or the organism or entity that definitively corresponds in accordance with the legislation of the United States of America. In case of an irreconcilable or irremediable conflict, disagreement, or incompatibility between the provisions of Chilean and American legislation for the Directors' Committee and the Audit Committee, respectively, Chilean law shall prevail over foreign law, although the Board of Directors may call an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting to amend the bylaws should this be necessary, and shall have the widest powers, acting within its powers, to solve such conflict, disagreement, or incompatibility should this be possible, by the creation of new committees and/or sub-committees, as also the delegation of part of its powers in accordance with Article 40 of the Chilean Corporations Law. The shareholders, directors, and Board of Directors of the Company should ensure at all times that the agreements and policies adopted by it are compatible and harmonious with the provisions of both legislations.

Article 30: The Directors' Committee shall be composed of three members, the majority of whom shall be independent according to the criteria and requirements established for this purpose in Article 50 bis of Law No. 18,046, both at the time of their appointment and during the whole period in which they perform as members of the Committee. Notwithstanding the above and complementing the provisions of Article 29 above, while the corporation is an issuer of securities duly registered on the NYSE or any other American national stock exchange, and in order to give strict compliance with the legal and regulatory requirements that the registration involves, all the members of the Directors' Committee should also meet the criteria and requirements of independence prescribed for this purpose by the SOX, the SEC, and the NYSE. Thus, no director who has been elected or appointed as a member of the Directors' Committee may, therefore, have any link, interest, or dependence with the corporation, whether economic, professional, credit, or commercial, whatever the amount or nature, nor receive, directly or indirectly, any income, remuneration, or compensation from the corporation or any of its subsidiaries that is not by concept nor has as the sole and exclusive source the duties performed as a member of the Board of Directors, as a member of the Directors' Committee, or as a member of any other committee or sub-committee of directors of the Company.

Article 31: The loss of independence that, according to the laws governing the Company and these bylaws, affects a member of the Committee shall generate the following incapacity of the respective director to perform his or her duties as a director and member of the Directors' Committee and therefore he or she should cease automatically in that position, notwithstanding his or her responsibility to the shareholders.

Article 32: The directors appointed as members of the Directors' Committee shall remain as such for the period they were appointed as director and may only resign from this position when they resign as director or having acquired an incapacity to perform the duties, in which case the provisions of the preceding Article shall apply. No director elected or appointed as a member of the Directors' Committee may be excused from this election or appointment.

Article 33: The meetings of the Directors' Committee shall be validly constituted with the absolute majority of its members and its resolutions shall be adopted by the absolute majority of the members present. The Directors' Committee should elect a Chairman from among its members who shall have the casting vote in the event of a tied vote.

Article 34: The Committee shall have the powers and duties that have been expressly contemplated both in the laws and their regulations, as well as the rules issued for the purpose by the competent administrative authority, especially those stated in Article 50 bis of Law No. 18,046, and any other matter, mandate, power, or duty commended to it by a shareholders or Board meeting.

Article 35: The deliberations, agreements, and organization of the Directors' Committee shall be governed, in everything applicable, by the regulations relating to the Board meetings of the Company.

CHAPTER SIX Balance Sheet, Funds and Earnings

Article 36: As of December 31 of each year, a financial statement with the operations of the Company shall be prepared, and the Board of Directors shall present this to the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting together with a report analyzing the situation of the Company and the statement of income and the related report provided by the inspectors of accounts and external auditors. All these documents must reflect clearly the equity position of the Company at the close of the respective year and the profits obtained or losses suffered during the year.

Article 37: On a date no later than the first notification convening the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors must make available to each shareholder registered in the respective register a copy of the duly audited Financial Statements and Annual Report of the Company, including the reports of the external auditors and inspectors of accounts, and their respective notes. The duly audited balance sheet, statement of income, and other information that the law or the Financial Market Commission requires shall be published on the web site of the Company within the timeframes and with the advance notice established by applicable statutes or regulations. Moreover, the aforementioned documents shall be filed with the Financial Market Commission and in time and form as the latter shall determine. The annual report, balance sheet, inventories, minutes of Board and Shareholders' Meetings, books, and reports of inspectors must be available to shareholders in the offices of the Company for 15 days prior to the date informed for the meeting. Should the balance sheet and statement of income be altered by the Meeting, the amendments, where corresponding, shall be made available to shareholders within 15 days following the date of the Meeting.

Article 38: Unless otherwise approved at the respective Meeting with the unanimous vote of the issued shares, a cash dividend shall be distributed annually to shareholders, pro-rata to their shares, for at least 30% of the net income for each year. In any event, the Board of Directors may, under the personal responsibility of the Directors present at the respective approval, distribute interim dividends during the year as a charge against the profits of that year, provided that there are no accumulated losses. The portion of profits earnings not allocated by the Meeting to dividends may be capitalized at any time, subject to amending the bylaws through the issue of free shares or by increasing the nominal value of the shares, or be retained to meet possible dividend payments in following years.

CHAPTER SEVEN Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 39: The dissolution of the Company shall occur in the cases foreseen in the Law. Dissolution in advance shall only be agreed at an Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting with the consenting vote of two thirds of the issued shares with voting rights.

Article 40: Once the Company is dissolved, the liquidation shall be performed by a Liquidation Committee formed by three people, shareholders or not, chosen by the Shareholders' Meeting, and who shall have the powers, duties, and obligations established in the law or regulations. If the Company is dissolved as a result of all the shares being held by one person through an uninterrupted period of at least ten days, liquidation shall be unnecessary.

Article 41: The liquidators shall convene an Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting in the month of April each year to report on the state of the liquidation. Should the liquidation not be completed within two years, a new election of liquidators shall be made, the same persons being re-eligible. The position of liquidators is remunerated and the Ordinary Shareholders' Meeting shall set the remuneration. The position of liquidator is revocable by an Ordinary or Extraordinary Shareholders' Meeting. Liquidators shall be suspended from their positions by overriding legal incapacity or by their declaration of bankruptcy.

CHAPTER EIGHT General Provisions

Article 42: The differences that may arise between the shareholders as such, or between them and the Company or its officers, either during its existence or its dissolution, will be solved by an arbitrator named by common accord between both parties who will exercise the role as arbitrator in such a proceeding and must decide according to Law. In the absence of such an agreement, the arbitrator shall be designated by Common Courts at the request of either party, in which case such nomination must be from attorneys who teach or who have taught for at least three consecutive years as Professors of Economic or Commercial Law in the Department of Law at the Universidad de Chile, Universidad Católica de Chile or Universidad Católica de Valparaíso. Notwithstanding the above, in the event of a conflict, the plaintiff may withdraw his recognition of the authority of the arbitrator and submit to the jurisdiction of the Common Justice a right that cannot be exercised by the directors, managers, administrators, and senior executives of the Company, nor by those shareholders that individually hold, directly and indirectly, shares whose book or market value exceeds 5,000 Unidades de Fomento, according to the value of this unit on the date of presentation of the demand.

Article 43: In all matters that are not expressly addressed within these bylaws, the provisions of Law No. 18,046, its amendments and regulations applicable to open joint-stock companies and those contained within Decree 3,500 article 111 shall apply.

Article 44: The Company will be subject to Resolution No. 667 of the Antitrust Resolutive Commission, dated as of October 30, 2002, on the understanding that the restrictions it contemplates will not apply to the Company in respect of Enel Américas S.A.
