

Claudia Bobadilla Ferrer

Santiago -Chile

Lawyer, graduated from Diego Portales University, Chile. Her career path has been tied up to the technological and scientific innovation projects, social entrepreneur and corporate director. Her key strengths are the understanding of global phenomena and trends triggered by the advancement of science and technologies; strategic business and social development and the construction of national and international networks of cross collaboration.

Current Positions

- Executive President of the Industrial Telecommunication Association Acceso TV A.G.

Acceso TV, the trade association for operators of cable and satellite television, represents one of Chile's most innovative industries. More than 50% of households nationwide, of all incomes, are connected through their TV operator, to a world of content and entertainment. We encourage innovation & competitiveness in the industry, while creating instances for debate and reflection on the challenges that the television of the future holds.

- Member of the board of directors of CINTAC S.A.

Cintac S.A. manufactures and markets steel construction systems for the construction industry in Chile, Peru, and Latin America. The company was founded in 1956 and is based in Maipú, Chile. Cintac S.A. is a subsidiary of Novacero S.A.

- Independent member of the board of directors of AES Gener, Chile.

AES Gener S.A. is the largest thermal generator and second largest electricity generator in Chile, accounting for 22% of total capacity on the country's two grids. The firm owns and operates a diverse portfolio of power plants in the country, including facilities operating on coal, gas, diesel, biomass and water. AES Gener serves the country's SIC grid through four run-of-the-river hydroelectric power plants, one coal-fired thermoelectric power plant, four diesel-fueled turbogas power plants, two cogeneration power plants and a combined-cycle gas turbine. It also serves the northern SING grid through its subsidiaries Norgener S.A., Empresa Eléctrica Angamos S.A. and Termoandes S.A. The firm currently operates in Argentina and Colombia through subsidiaries Termoandes S.A. and AES Chivor & Cia S.C.A. E.S.P. AES Gener is controlled by US power company AES Corp.

- Member of the board of Trustees of Associated Universities Inc., USA.

Located in Washington DC, this association was founded by the main universities in the USA, for the management and research development in advanced radio astronomy facilities. In Chile they are the USA representatives and managers of the ALMA radio astronomy observatory.

- Member of the board of directors of CSIRO, Chile. Australian Research & Innovation Organization.

The Commonwealth Scientific and Industrial Research Organisation (CSIRO) is an independent agency of the Australian Federal Government responsible for scientific research in Australia. Its chief role is to improve the economic and social performance of industry, for the benefit of the community. CSIRO works with leading organisations around the world.

- Founder and Vice President of RAD Chile Foundation.

Founder of the scientific and corporate development program High Management Network (RAD). Private project which gathers Chilean and foreign companies, structured as a nonprofit organization called RAD Foundation. This initiative promotes the value of interdisciplinary thinking and intellectual curiosity through exploration as a way of better understanding the challenges of the future triggered by the advancement of science and technologies.

Previous Activities

- Member of the board of directors of Santander Chile Bank. (2005 to 2010)
- Executive Director of País Digital Foundation, Chile. (2003 to 2010)
- Founder and president of Comunidad Mujer, Chile. (2001 to 2002)
- Director of Legal Affairs of Terra Networks Chile S.A. (1999 to 2002)
- Executive Secretary at the Chilean Japanese Committee. (1996 to 2000)
- Lawyer at Fundación Chilena del Pacífico. (1990 to 2000)

Languages

Spanish, English and French.